

3) The ROBDD can at most be K wide, and at most be N deep, since the number of paths traversed to get "true", is at least K , and at most N . As such, the bound of the function for the number of internal nodes will be $k*n$.